Tommy's Quarantini

Created exclusively by Mixologist Tommy Messer

First you need to make yourself a drink, like an old fashioned with smoked chilli and orange bitters. Then you need to sterilize everything around you... because that's what we do these days!

You are going to need a one litre glass jar packed full of ice... not a shaker because this isn't a real martini. Get your ingredients together:

- Saltspring Shine Local Gin
- Yerba Matte Guyaki
- Mama Moonshine Elixir

Take a sip of your old fashioned and then pout 6 ounces (or more) of gin into the jar of ice.

Add 2 big healthy shots (2 ounces) of Mama Moonshine full of ginger, turmeric, lemon

Add some citrus, over ice jar... juicy Lime squeezed over the jar...

Top it off with yerba tea and add a bit of soda... any soda will do.

Garnish with cucumber and cut it long and tall, add lemon, lime and cuke and there you have your Homemade Isolation Party in a jar.

Give it a stir!! swizzle and a guzzle.

Do that on repeat until your next door neighbours tell you to put your clothes on and get out of their yard!
