Greetings

Is there such a thing as "taking on too much?" Yes, there is! I have realized it and have reached my capacity of what I am physically and mentally capable of doing. Being a person who does not believe in the word "can't" it is time for me to at least learn to say "no." I publish this magazine, work on call at the hospital, am completing a part time medical course at Camosun College, am planning a garage sale, some landscaping, renovations, have a five year old and I am expecting a new baby soon. Now don't get me wrong, I am not alone in this - my hubby helps when he's not working - but it appears things are reaching a "critical mass/meltdown" situation. I have always liked being busy but this is just getting a little ridiculous!

I do hope that my efforts will pay off and that my garage sale planning offers me the ability to de-clutter my home and relieve my burden of having "too much stuff." Please drop by on April 19 at 301 Mobrae to see if your personal treasure is lurking in my garage... you never know! Check out the garage sale ad in this issue for details.

Coming soon is the world recognized "Earth Day" where we pay homage to our Mother Nature and all she has provided us. While it is good to think of the environmental need on this day, it is even better to practice solutions for sustainability every day. With that in mind I'd like to add this note which I received via email from a Peaceworks! supporter:

Peace Works! invites the whole community to an Earth Day Celebration in Song.

Come and lend your voice to SSI's Earth Day Choir. Sunday, April 20 at GISS Multi-Purpose Room, 1:30 - 2:30 PM.

Peace Works! requests that all participants bring along a pebble they've chosen. These pebbles symbolize our connection and commitment to Earth and each other as we endeavor to restore and repair the planet. We will be led in song by Barbara Slater, Bruce Rudell and Tuned Air, Sue Newman, Women of Note and others. Terri Bibby will be there with her loom and peace banner.

Let's Celebrate!

"Sounds of the Silver Screen" with Salt Spring Concert Band

On Friday, April 18 the Salt Spring Concert Band directed by Dawn Hage presents Sounds of the Silver Screen - a musical tribute to a century of incredible music written for movies and film by some of the worlds greatest composers. From movies that we all loved as children to soundtracks from the hits of 2007, this performance by the Concert Band will appeal to young and old alike. Enjoy famous melodies from The Sound of Music, Exodus, Lawrence of Arabia, 'More' from Mondo Cane, the Magnificent Seven and the Legend of Zorro. Move into the modern age with Superman, Spiderman, Pirates of the Caribbean: At World's End, The Incredibles and much more.

Special Feature: 'Fortuna Imperatrix Mundi' from Carmina Burana by Carl Orff will be performed accompanied by the premiere screening of a film inspired by this music and created especially for the Salt Spring Concert Band by filmmaker and composer Matt Kollar, an exciting collaboration that is a first for Salt Spring and the Concert Band.

The Salt Spring Concert Band, now in its sixteenth year, features a roster of 45 adult and youth musicians. This combination of musical experience and youthful energy creates a concert experience that is always exciting, dynamic and appealing. The repertoire for Sounds of the Silver Screen includes many favourite scores from band members and director Dawn Hage was challenged to narrow down the myriad choices to design a program that featured the very best arrangements available. The result will be an unforgettable evening of spectacular movie music that you won't want to miss.

To learn more about the Salt Spring Concert Band, check out www.bandemonium.org Tickets at ArtSpring (537-2102) - Adults $16, Youths - $10, EyeGo - $5 One Night Only!

The Islands Marketplace HOROSCOPE

For your daily stars, personal horoscopes & more visit www.patrickarundell.com

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

Your energy, drive and determination can be amazing. And this can impress those in the know, or turn them off, if they perceive you as getting too far ahead of yourself. Do be enthusiastic though. Few can quarrel with this, but leave impetuous moves to another time. In love, your quicksilver mind can dazzle. However, do be sure of who you snare Aries.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

The Quarter Moon urges you to think on your feet. But if you end up with one of these in your mouth, any gaff you make can lead to personal embarrassment. Also steer clear of needy and draining types of people. You needn't be unkindly, but you'd be advised to keep the boundaries on your domain strong. Thinking time can prove invaluable.

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

Property has been much in the news. And there have been cautionary trends and sentiment. However, what this can do is make people less concerned with selling up and instead eager to improve their current abode. You can show particular wisdom around this. The crux is if you can resist making short term decisions. Think of the implications.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

You could have some powerful insights, and in turn your imagination can be potent. You can use this positively or you can confuse yourself about your own aims. Try to resist jostling with others. This could come from your inner insecurities. You will stand up fine to scrutiny if you retain your dignity, but give others their voice too Cancer.

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

Mars can certainly be a friend to Leos. Why? Because of the natural pride and self-confidence that it engenders. But it continues in a tricky zone in your horoscope. Yet by the week's close, its link with Uranus can see you make some snap decisions that can work out well for you. However, you may have to quell your resentment towards everyday demands.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

Someone, or a group of people are really going to appeal to you this week, and even if you don't easily "join up" your desire to be included in this cosy set-up could surprise even you. Yet a friend with a decidedly independent take on life can try to shake you out of making any rash moves. This can cause initial tension, but eventually you may be grateful.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

Do you love a little bit of extravagance? You do? You win a commendation for being up front about it. If however, your spending habits remain somewhat in denial, the start of this week can see you struggling to resist. Resist what? Well, anything you know you shouldn't really be indulging in. Remember Libra, there really can be too much of a good thing.

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

It's part of human nature to want to spoil those we love. However, if you are overly protecting someone from life's harsh realities, perhaps you're not doing them a favour after all. Why? Perhaps they need to garner their own experiences. This will help them to grow and anyway, if you are over protective, they will only eventually resent it.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

Your ruler, Jupiter, is bubbling away in the area that emphasises values - luxuries too. However, don't be seduced by advertising campaigns or snazzy packaging, shop around, read the small print and do proper evaluations. If you do, you could get something that delights you. If you don't, you could end up out of pocket and also low on spirits.

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

Saturn, the planet that has the greatest bearing on your personality, is much maligned. And yet there's no doubting the power that it has and how closely we are allied to its phases. The 7 year itch? Count in 14, 21 and 28 years too. But it can be a force for good. Something can now begin to shape up, something that a while ago seemed it never would.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

Your way with words can give you a genuine gift of the gab. Put in a modern context, your technical or computing skills can, this week, also mesmerise. However, the trick will be to back up your smart ideas, by ensuring they're delivered efficiently. News heard on the grapevine can also reassure. Your reputation is growing, especially for kind deeds.

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

If you promise someone the earth, be sure you don't deliver them with clods of clay. Being well meaning is not necessarily the same as acting meaningfully and that is what you should focus your energies on ensuring this week. However, as long as you anchor down your expectations, and are realistic too, finances can see some positive news.
