"Summer's here and the time is right for dancin' in the street" - this is always a favorite song of mine for this time of year... Summer isn't officially here yet, not until June 21, but on hot days like we've been having, I definitely do feel like dancin' in the street - thanks Diamond Dave (and Eddie of course), for the inspiration.

The grads on the front page must be feeling the same way, with the joy and anxiousness of starting their young lives with a sense of freedom - oh to be young again. Congratulations Grads - you did it!! Now here's my advice: Live life like there's no tomorrow, don't let your fears stop you from going for it, and remember that you can do whatever you put your heart, soul and mind into doing.

There will be much dancing on Salt Spring as the summer celebrations kick off at Beaver Point Hall and the Salt Spring Marina's Open House this weekend. Summer is a short beautiful season, so get off the couch and go have some fun. You can hibernate in the winter, right?

Have you heard of the much-talked-about "Community List" - An inbox of information always greets me every morning, every hour, almost every minute and I think it's great! Fabulous really. Christopher Roy has taken Harry's list and has created a masterpiece - now if only he could sell it at the Saturday Market! Actually, for the amount of work he puts into it, I bet he'd like to receive some payback. I asked him if he has thought of charging a small annual membership fee for the list members. It is a good idea and would make all his hard work, worthwhile. I'd pay for it. Have you seen their new website? Very nice. www.saltspringcommunity.com

Someone asked me if I thought The List would put an end to The Islands Marketplace. Never! I say. Oh no, everyone likes a good read, everyone wants a deal but not everyone has a computer. Besides we offer so much more than just free classified ads... features, stories, events, and a little bit of everything, really!

In earlier years, the whole newspaper industry was threatened by the new-fangled world wide web thingamabob. And look... see? Newspapers everywhere are doing just fine. Even little Salt Spring Island is thriving with three publications (The two best ones are 100% locally made and printed, btw). People like paper... afterall, what would they print their emails on?

No!!! Wait! I take that back! Don't print your emails... ever!!! Save all scraps of paper, recycle everything - including rainwater. Recycle this magazine, pass it on to your friends, and subscribe to our online email edition. It's in colour, and it looks mah-vellous.

See you dancin' in the street, eh? - SP

Moby's Oyster Bar & Marine Grill Official Grand Opening

& Open House at The new Outdoor
Adventure Centre at Salt Spring Marina
~ fun for the whole family!

Salt Spring Island institution Moby's Marine Pub is pleased to announce it's official Grand Opening Weekend, Saturday June 13 and Sunday June 14th, 2009.

Our opening weekend will include live outdoor music from 2-5 each day, featuring KC Kelly & Sandy Proffitt on Saturday and The Barley Brothers on Sunday.

The Outdoor Adventure Centre's Open House will have family activities, face painting, prize draws, boat rides and more to bring excitement and fun to Salt Spring Marina. With so much to do, it is your one-stop-shop for recreation variety.

The Moby's Experience

Under new ownership and new management Moby's Oyster Bar & Marine Grill is an epicurean pub committed to creating and reintroducing the Moby's experience.

"We are aiming to recapture the essence of the Moby's of 10 years ago" says new owner Robert Steinbach. "Many Islanders have expressed their excitement at regaining the community atmosphere that Moby's used to have." Much time and careful planning has gone into focusing on an extraordinary service and creating a new menu that people will come to know and refer to as 'The Moby's Experience'.

Part of this rebirth of Moby's involves the re-introduction of Jazz night every Sunday evening from 7-10, featuring live music from our local pool of very talented musicians. We are also running a Blues night every other Thursday from 8-11 and a selection of other musicians in between these regular events.

We have been working hard to make the change to our new Oyster Bar & Marine Grill format as smooth as possible. We are transitioning to a menu that better reflects our local marine and farming heritage. We are already offering an exciting array of seafood dishes, some new meat additions and a number of refreshing vegetarian options.

We will be incorporating the produce of a number of local producers in the new menu as well. This will enhance the Salt Spring Experience that Islanders long for.

Oysters usually attract great people, both as patrons and staff. The magic of the mollusk is infectious in its ability to create great times. Perhaps it's the aphrodisiac attributes of the oysters, or possibly the excitement of seeing the oysters prepared before you, but no matter what, oysters are almost always assured to create fun times! We are shucking at least three varieties on any day of the week. Our fresh oysters have as much character as the regions of the ocean they come from, making an oyster sampling a really enjoyable experience. This is enhanced when paired with some fabulous 'bubbles', beer or wine.

"In addition to the new food, we've expanded our beer list by adding five new taps to our line up, reflecting local beers as well as new brands not available elsewhere on Salt Spring Island. Our expanded wine list provides plenty of choices by the glass, carafe and bottle for wine lovers of all persuasions. We are also proud to offer a great selection of sparkling wines from all over the world - by the glass or bottle."

Moby's is fortunate enough to serve the boating population at Salt Spring Marina in addition to the community as a whole, and offers delivery service to boats moored at the Marina during operating hours, plus take out fare and off sales of beer & wine from 11-11, daily.

Moby's would like to thank all the people who have already visited during this transition, and looks forward to seeing you again during the Grand Opening Weekend! The new Moby's is open from 11.00 a.m. until late night seven days a week.

For more info, please contact Robert Steinbach, Proprietor, 537-5559.

CROFTON, BC – GATEWAY TO THE GULF ISLANDS

"THE CROFTON CORNER"

• FEATURING NEWS AND EVENTS FROM BEAUTIFUL CROFTON, BC •

Come join us at the Crofton Saturday Market, the most relaxing little market in the Cowichan Valley. We are situated in the park beside the ferry terminal to Saltspring Island. Our hours are from 9am - 2pm. Wander around and meet our very talented artisans.

You'll see beautiful Native carvings, handmade clothing and silk-screening, jewellery, preserves and plants. These are just a few of the things you will see. If you want to nibble, try Sydney's "The Best" cookies or Jodi's famous popcorn. Dogs are more than welcome and they too have a place to shop at Cheryl's tent where they'll find a large selection of cookies and treats to choose from. After the market you might want to talk a stroll along our Sea Walk and take in the fabulous view. We're looking forward to seeing you.

On July 11th Crofton is also having a fun day. We have not finalized everything but this is what we have so far.

CROFTON FUN DAYS
Saturday, July 11, 2009

Catch the community spirit and help make Crofton Fun Days a huge success. A great time was had by all last year. Let's all work together and make this a great day. We are shutting Joan Avenue down for the day and planning fun for the whole community. Activities so far for the July 11 event include:

- Crofton Market
 - Crofton Quilters – Quilt Show in the Senior Centre
 - Harvest House -Corn on the Cob and bake sale
 - Crofton Fire Department will be holding:
 - a Pancake Breakfast on Joan Avenue
 - a ball tournament
 - Beer Garden
 - Fire Prevention Safety House Display and
 - an antique truck on display.
- And much more still in the planning stage.

Crofton's beautiful oceanside park, seen above to the left of the ferry dock, is a great place for the weekly Saturday Market. Ocean breezes and services close at hand make it enjoyable for the whole family.

While you are at the Market, stroll across the park and visit the Crofton Old School Museum. The museum is in Crofton's original school house and features classroom displays of years gone by as well as a scale model of the Crofton Smelter that operated on the waterfront from 1902-1908.

The volunteer run museum is open in the summer months Tuesday to Saturday from 9am to 1pm.

Foxglove Community Gardens, Crofton, yard sale, June 13, 9 a.m.-3 p.m. All proceeds to improvements for the gardens. Donations can be dropped off by contacting Nancy 250-246-4967 or info@foxglovecommunitygardens.com

Rasma Bertz is pleased to announce the re-opening of her healing studio, Ravenwing Soul Harmonics, under the banner of her health education company Quantum North. She offers total wellness inspiration for people, pets and places.

Operating from her home on Old Scott Road, Rasma provides individually tailored biofeedback and pampering energy healing sessions. One of her primary goals is to identify and help implement a plan to reduce root stressors causing imbalances or illness.

Whether clients come for a relaxing hour of Sekhem on the massage table, or an interactive 2 hours of Quantum Biofeedback on a comfy couch, they are guaranteed to go home feeling positive and proactive with lots of information about themselves.

Animal sessions are done using a fur sample. This avoids travel trauma and logistical issues. The same process, using hair, can also benefit human clients who are unable to visit the studio.

You can even build your own Quantum Biofeedback session starting with the basic 'Elixir of Life' – this aids nutritional, hormonal, digestive and fear issues. Add on energetic therapies that help to re-educate your cell memory, for a specific focus, illness or health goal, and you have a session that suits your budget and/or time. The Elixir of Life makes a great taster session for those not sure about how it all works – and it also makes a great gift.

Rasma is a qualified Quantum Biofeedback mentor, and teaches Sekhem workshops to individuals and small groups on a regular basis. For more information, visit www.quantumnorth.com or send an email to Rasma at rasma@quantumnorth.com

LOVE CONQUERS ALL

The Red Tent is a monthly group that meets on the Friday closest to new moon, to celebrate all that it means to be female - sharing joys, sorrows, births, deaths, energy, ritual, compassion and love. Women of all ages are welcome, including nursing mothers and pre-teen daughters.

The new moon in Cancer is about home, security, nurturing, maternity, caring, growth and development. Cancer, as a water sign, rules feelings and moods. The Cancer moon is about achieving intimacy with self as well as with others.

Join me for this regular monthly circle of women, celebrating ourselves and our femininity, and the love of self, children, Earth, friends and lovers in our lives.

Connecting our sacred to our heart so that we can reconnect our creativity and manifest the love that we deserve. ~ Rasma

SALTSPRING SOLILOQUIES

Jim Anderson is a writer living on Saltspring. He is working on a metamorphosis of the human mind. © 2005 by Jim Anderson, Saltspring Island

"Union Bound"

By Jim Anderson

"Things fly this way and that, my boy," he said, "with or without messages. It's chaos, and no mistake, for the Universe is just being born. It's the great becoming that makes the light and the heat and the motion, and bangs you from hither to yon."

- Winston Niles Rumford

"The Sirens of Titan" by Kurt Vonnegut, jr.

Sitting here now safe on this beautiful island sanctuary, it seems impossible that somewhere on earth they are making biological weapons and nerve gas, that young innocent children are playing in fields where deadly landmines are buried, or that pregnant women with their babies in tow are rooting through mountains of city garbage looking for food. But it is true.

Perhaps in the boardrooms and the think tanks, in the laboratories, colliders or observatories, in the backrooms, caucuses and on the agendas of politicians and government, or in the war rooms things are proceeding as per plan. And, I suspect that behind the façade of media and entertainment that the New World Order of manipulation, deceit, iron-fisted power and draconian control is on course and running smoothly.

But from where I stand things are not working well at all. This is not the third world, but still it takes everything I have to hold my life together. And if I were to let down and turn my back for an instant, it could so easily all fall apart.

Scientists are confident that soon all universe will be reduced to a logical and rational set of universal equations, and that with cybernetics, nanotechnology and genetic engineering everything will fit together perfectly in a new world technosphere. But they must live in a different world and a different universe than mine.

Centuries ago in ancient Egypt, people believed that their Pharaohs were human Gods walking the earth. And as Gods those Pharaohs believed that they could submit Earth to their will and their power. They believed they could guide and control all universe. The sands of time proved otherwise.

In the Wizard of OZ, when Dorothy, Tin Man, Lion and Scarecrow finally made it to the Emerald City, standing there awe struck in front of the pyrotechnics, terror and power of the "Great and Powerful Oz"... little Toto pulled away the drapes to destroy the illusion and reveal the buffoon behind the curtain.

Today the show is mesmerizing and hypnotic, but there is the gnawing suspicion lurking in the shadows of my mind that behind another secret curtain somewhere lies the stark, terrible disillusion that the Supreme Ones really do not have the answer that will take us all back home.

Things don't really work well, or really run smoothly in this insanity we call civilization. Something is missing. Something is wrong, terribly wrong. And I am afraid that all the technology, and all the careful, computerized plans, statistics and agendas won't be enough. We aren't going to make it the way our civilization is going. We need change. Huge changes.

Universe always runs away from the limited, imperfect vision we have of it, and from the futile and pathetic threads of constraint, law and predictability we hope to hold it with. We are not Gods. We are yet imperfect and not fully evolved. There is potential for greatness in all of us, but there are also ignorance and potentially fatal flaws hidden there. That fact seems to have escaped notice today in our modern world.

Our world may yet collapse. We all may yet be destined to live through terrible, savage and wretched chaos and the brutal madness of social disintegration. We live in an age where an entire civilization is poised on the threshold of magnificence or destruction. And you and I have to find our way through, somehow. But I am afraid that the path through to the future, and the answers will not come from above, or from our supreme leaders. To find the answers to solve the inhumanity, agony and social disintegration that is true fact in our modern human world each of us, like Dorothy, are going to have to look inside ourselves.

And the path down that Yellow Brick Road for us all is really a journey towards a higher consciousness and a new human spiritual renaissance where we will all finally "treat each other decently" and live together in peace.

I found this on "The Community List"

Was inspired to share it and support the cause to End Slavery!

Dear Salt Spring,

Wondering who else out there was inspired by the article in last weeks Driftwood? I wanted to offer a chance for everyone to see the film Amazing Grace which ties in beautifully with Eric's Run 4 the Rescue.

Goals:

- 1) to help raise enough money to do the Run 4 The Rescue, (500 miles in chains)
- 2) Engage the entire community on the topic of slavery and the power we have to change it

Join us Wed June 17th 7:00 @ The Fritz to meet Eric and watch the inspiring film....AMAZING GRACE

Eric is busily engaged in creating partnerships with organizations, organizing speaking and singing events along the way, engaging the public in discussion and solutions, working with government officials to tighten laws, etc... And running and running...

Any support he can get from community members, especially in the area of fundraising would be fantastic. Are you willing to join our team?

You can call Sandy 250-930-7197 to discuss this invitation!

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

Mercury finally ends a long tangle with the future zone of your 'scope. If you have been feeling confused about what your prospects are, you can now start to get a clearer idea of what's what. Yet with fortune bringer Jupiter starting to head backwards, you still need to keep your wits about you. Don't assume one associate or friend will keep a promise.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

Your romantic prospects remain bright, but there's a caveat. If you get chatting to someone, try not to be too influenced by their material situation. Yet if you have an imaginative idea, the rest of June can prove perfect to flesh it out, so do the legwork. Your sharp eyes can also see you shave a few more pounds off the household budget Taurus.

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

You can start to feel zippier. Not every hope will go on the front foot, but some can, and such has been your frustrations with certain delays, you can let out a whoop of delight at any progress. This week can also see you start anew, in some areas. You can be very inventive, so whether it's a fresh hobby or small enterprise, they'll be well timed Gemini.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

A friend can give you an important tip-off and whilst this could be in terms of a flutter in a sporting context, just as easily it can relate to a possible job opportunity. You can be one of the shrewdest of all the zodiac signs, so do look out for the politics in situations. Some hopes may see you needing to bide your time, but not for much longer!

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

The Sun forms a delicious link with a host of planets in your relating sector and after some ups and downs one involvement can now start to look a lot more positive. If you're a solo Lion, you may discuss going away on holiday with a close friend. Yet with travel planet Jupiter beginning to twist backwards, accept that things can ebb and flow.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

Send in that application. Ask your current employer about widening your experiences, day release or technical training schemes. If you don't flag up your hopes to improve your lot, no-one else will. Even if this means you have to get by on a little less money for a while, if your moves better equip you for the future, this is where you should focus your aims.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

You can attend a business meeting and the portents are excellent. But travelling for pleasure can also be fulfilling, and can see you taking in a show, a concert or jetting off on a holiday. If you're looking to meet someone new, things are bright. But the first person who shows a big interest may not be the one, but something else can soon be sizzling.

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

A mixture of shrewdness and tact can do wonders for you this week. Yet this may require you to sacrifice a little bit of independence in order to extract the maximum benefits. In love, things are at a tantalising juncture. But the impact of the Quarter Moon may see someone appear on your radar who can seem to be the real deal, but ultimately flatter to deceive.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

If things have been a bit strained between you and someone, who's going to make the first move to sort this out? Should you do so, you might be pleasantly delighted by how the conversation unfolds. However, someone in the family could surprise you with a revelation or are you going to let something slip which has been kept under wraps?

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

This can be a great week to get things done and a "can do" attitude can win you plaudits. But don't try to be too much a people pleaser, you have your own chores and things to get done, and if you push these to one side too much, eventually you are going to feel frazzled. The good news is that blending flair with common sense can work wonders.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

Your personality can be your route to success but you can ally to this, perceptiveness. This will see you woo admirers with your quirky humour, but win long term fans, through your caring ways. However, Jupiter does head backwards in your sign, suggesting that one scheme may require slight revision before it really pays off. Be up for the challenge.

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

If you've hankered to spend more time with your family, especially if you have younger kids, you may jump at the chance of taking on a part-time or home based role which allows you to do precisely that. Yet you can't just throw off previous responsibilities, and even if you feel crowded out, you'll need to negotiate changes, rather than demand them.
