Happy Summer Solstice!!!

According to popular belief and astrology June 20 is officially the first day of summer and the day of Summer Solstice. Many of us have eagerly awaited this day to celebrate the sun and longest day of the year. Those who have found this to be the longest winter on record are happy to rejoice in the warmth and goodness of our solar system's most brilliant star and we can only hope she shines brightly for us over the next few months. Our moods, our gardens and some of our businesses have suffered without Sol's presence and we want her back, for as long as we can have her. So please take the time to enjoy her when you can and celebrate her warmth. Happy Summer Solstice!

We would like to welcome our visitors to the island in this issue as we reach our first summer long weekend and get ready to celebrate our great country on July 1st. There will be lots going on around town and we hope to have included as much as possible in our Calendar of Events and story on page 7. If you are seeking more ideas, visit the Info Centre in Ganges or go online and google search Salt Spring Island for some top hits to island events.

The Islands Marketplace staff is also looking forward to an upcoming celebration, as we prepare to welcome a new addition into our family, any time soon... Our daughter Amanda, who is five, is anxiously awaiting her little sister to come into the world, very close to July 1. We at the Marketplace have been working hard to make sure this delivery will not delay the delivery of our July 4 issue. We have been doing our best to get the next issue as ready as possible and we hope that the community will bear with us as we do our best to make both edition and addition happen as smoothly as possible. We are moving our July 4 issue deadline back one day to Monday June 30, so keep sending us your ads, upcoming events and stories, but please just try to send them in a little earlier.

This Friday's issue has some great deals and bargains. If you're looking for furniture, boats, cars, trucks, guitars, lamps, baby stuff or antiques you've come to the right place. Advertising in The Islands Marketplace is free - it is the only 100% locally owned and produced, free buy and sell publication on Salt Spring and the outer Gulf Islands and we hope you take every opportunity to use it's service. Send us your non-commercial ad today. Why pay for classified advertising, when you don't have to?

Have a Wonderfully Patriotic Canada Day-- Sandi & Andrew Poystila

Island Life has Something for Everyone

Story by S. Poystila

Welcome to beautiful Salt Spring Island. A small gulf island in the centre of the universe, a.k.a. paradise. Yes, for those of us who are fortunate enough to live here full time, year round we are blessed with a quiet community, rural lifestyle and slower, more laid-back pace of life. Our world almost "shuts down" in the winter months, or when it snows, or when we must wait for the deer to cross the road. Almost everyone here knows everyone else, we all see each other at the local ball fields, kids plays, church concerts and community festivities and it is a nice feeling to know your neighbour.

But when summer comes, us locals tend to do a little bit of hibernating... to our own glorious backyards, secret beaches or hiking trails. We tend to stay away from town on Saturdays, unless we are market vendors or absolutely have to do something. We will definitely get out on Saturday morning for a good garage sale convoy though. A good bargain is not to be missed on this island where Big Box Store shopping is non-existent and pretty much unwelcome. We like our stuff passed down, traded, handed-over, hand-made, recycled and especially organic – it is the island way.

Visitors to our "Eden" are thrilled to be a part of our island existence, even if it is only for a weekend or a day, because they usually come back for more, when they can spend more time... and many, after just one visit, will end up moving here permanently.

Via yacht, car, bus, bike, float plane or hitching a ride over, we receive visitors from all parts of the world and all walks of life, each seeking a new adventure, a new discovery, to feel something they haven't in a while... the quiet peacefulness of living more naturally. Life without the traffic, the concrete, the noise, the pollution, the hussle-bussle crowds of non-smiling city-walking coffee-drinking movers and shakers and the underlying hum of progression, expansion and technology.

When they visit our famous Saturday market, a very popular attraction, they are blown away by the creativity and talent that our local artists have and are amazed to see such vibrant works and welcoming, friendly faces who are so proud of their creations. Everyone has to take a piece of Salt Spring home and the market is a great place to find an island-made gift or keepsake. There is no better place to find top-quality products.

Others who venture further into town will find treasures galore at the many galleries, shops and emporiums. From beautiful imported goods to high-end original art of paintings, jewellery, and sculpture to textiles, carvings and glasswork, it is all here... waiting to be discovered and cherished by you or someone you love. Witness our artists at work in their own studios when you take the self-guided Studio Tour.

And after a long day of taking in the sights and sounds of the market and park activities we have festivals and fine food to keep your adrenaline pumping into the night. Whether you crave a burger, pizza or sushi to go, or want to enjoy a seaside dinner, one of our many restaurants will treat you to some of the best food and friendly service you could expect in a fine dining establishment. Clip out the Dining Guide on Page 13 for reference. Visit the Treehouse Cafe in the heart of Ganges where there is always live music playing under the stars or you can check to see what's happening at ArtSpring, our local live theatre, or see what movie is on at the Fritz Movie Theatre. Some weekends are non-stop here with so much to do and so little time, you can't decide which to take in first. Our calendar of events on page 4 tries to squeeze it all in, but it's impossible.

I truly believe we must be some of the happiest, most positive people in BC as we celebrate everything with joy! We have so many festivals and celebrations - our community really gets together like no other to enjoy the lavender, apple, garlic and textiles festivals, childrens carnival, Canada Day and various music celebrations, drumming and yoga workshops, art & theatre shows, Saltspring Island Fall Fair - you name it, we'll celebrate it.

When you are ready for a rest from all that excitement, there is Kelly's Gourmet Cruises that will allow you to cruise the island waters, take in the scenery and be treated to a gourmet meal that will make your mouth water.

Treasures galore when you visit Saltspring Island's Saturday Market.

If you prefer to keep your feet on land, visit Skin Sensations Day Spa where you will be treated like a queen, as every inch of your body is tended to in pure relaxation and pampering. And if that isn't enough, there are many great places to stretch into some yoga and breathing classes.

If you are more of a quiet island adventurer, we have lots of beach accesses and hiking trails too. A trip up to the top of Mount Maxwell offers a breathtaking view which is perfect for a picnic. Saltspring Island has some great little swimming spots at the lake or ocean for kids and adults. Vesuvius Beach is one of the warmest ocean beaches and St. Mary Lake offers a small beach which is nice for the little ones.

To be sure you don't miss anything, visit the Visitor Info centre or go online to www.saltspringmarket.com to choose your favorite activity.

So enjoy our island, take a part of it home with you, in your photos, memories, keepsakes and purchases. Treasure the experiences and happiness of island life, the way we locals do, and come back when you can stay a little longer. Hopefully, you will notice that the only negative thing about our little rock is that there is just not enough parking for everyone.

SWOVA Fundraising and CD Launch at Alan Moberg Concert

Alan Moberg, about to be inducted into the BC Country Music Hall of Fame this summer, launches his 16th CD, Remember Me at Fulford Hall, Monday June 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Tickets at Stuff and Nonsense, Acoustic Planet and Salt Spring Books and at the door for $15 - a fundraiser for SWOVA's Respectful Relationships program.

Because of an exciting repertoire that is uniquely Moberg—country folk—songs of his beloved British Columbia and its peoples—Alan is to be inducted into the BC Country Music Hall of Fame this August.

Alan has been recording his best CD yet over the past six months, with Ramesh Meyers of Allowed Sound. Remember Me has Songs of the Coast, Songs of the Country, Songs of the Heart.

The heart of the collection is undoubtedly Rodney Crowell's Please Remember Me, which Moberg delivers with the passion and power it demands. Blue Bayou and Roy Orbison fans, get ready! This will be the version to have, with soaring, bell-like vocals and Louisiana rhythms. And of course, there's something spiritual from his hero, Johnny Cash.

These are songs to Dream by, Dance to,

Delight in. Alan explores perhaps previously uncharted territories of the heart, whether in the exquisitely slow and romantic accordion rhythms of The Ganges Waltz; or in Above the Clouds, a most tender song of love. Love has many forms and Sally June lyrically paints the caring and concerns of parents for a rural child who has left home for the city.

This is also vintage Moberg, in reprises like the Ashcroft Stampede, backed by the fine toe-tapping, swing-your-partner fiddle of Adrian Dolan of Victoria. Or his signature song, Saltwater Cowboy, which reflects his blended musical influences. Alan adds to his extensive body of British Columbia folk songs with Sunday Night Seine Boats depicting the heyday of the fishing industry.

Some of the finest island musicians have worked on the recording. Bill Henderson's guitar breaks out in Alan's hot country dance tune, Working Fool. Donn Tarris adds incredible dimensions with his soft and swaying slide guitar. Ramesh Meyers provides harmonies so fine they seem like shadows, as well as the solid and stylish bass underpinnings.

A breakout for Moberg is a song co-written with his Vancouver Island friend, Ed

Alan Moberg launches his newest CD "Remember Me"

Peekeekoot, of the Ahtahkakoop Cree First Nation. A saucy, sentient song called Red Man Plays the Blues.

Moberg has always celebrated our First Nations people, and a track from his new CD will be nominated in the non-aboriginal category of The Aboriginal People's Choice Music Awards this year. The first round of voting begins July 8-August 15, 2008. Registration is free to anyone wishing to cast a ballot. <http://www.aboriginalpeopleschoice.com/signup>

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

Finding your emotional bearings becomes something of a quest. And yet just as you're heading this way, a love tie can have a discouraging impact. Perhaps if you've recently met someone, there's a bit of a reality check in store or you'll realise that at a deeper level, the emotional chemistry is not sound. Feeling secure is an important issue now Aries.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

A chattier you can emerge but the down side is that, at times, this can also see you a little gushy. Although, with Venus's help, you can make an excellent impression, think before you speak. Conversation with an older person can also bring something to light that may disconcert you and especially if you discover you've been kept in the dark.

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

Your talent for turning a coin to your advantage is flagged up from now Gemini. And even if you have only a sliver of enterprise, it can see you better your lot. However, it's going to be essential to be straightforward and honest in your dealings. Demand the same from others. If you're set to buy anything expensive, be doubly sure of its provenance.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

You're set to power forwards as the Sun radiates goodness right at the core of your being. However, a murky angle can see you confused over financial matters. Usually, you have a gift for stewardship of your resources and this isn't going to suddenly change, but the facts you base key decisions on, need to be accurate or else you can come unstuck.

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

You're a proud beast Leo and even if opposition comes your way, you don't easily step back. The problem now however, is that life can seem more like smoke and mirrors and this can make it difficult for you to know where you stand. Energy can also dive on the back of this illusory mix. Cut back on commitments and stay close to those you truly trust.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

Clear about your life direction? If you are, all well and good. However, a potentially debilitating and highly deceptive angle between Mars and Neptune can test even the clearest of strategies. Equally, if you're relying on others in professional situations, not everyone may be as honest and upstanding as you'd like to think. Mind games are possible Virgo.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

From now people can be keen to pay you credit with your name potentially, up in lights or with a mention in your local newspaper. Enjoy the plaudits - especially if you've worked hard to earn such respect. However, this success can see you linking with a network of new faces. Just be sure of any such player's motives. Charm can be used against you.

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

If you've yet to tie down your holiday plans for this year, the next month can see you motivated to get a hold of this. The same could be true if you're hoping to start a higher education course in the Autumn. You can also be minded to chase down some escapism from life's everyday drudgery. Be careful not to take your eye off the ball too much Scorpio.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

Your reputation as a lover of freedom is over played, after all, you still need basic security just like any other person. In fact, over the next four weeks, you may find yourself wanting to draw closer, both physically and emotionally or ironically, do the opposite and break away. If the latter is on your mind, be aware your thoughts can be rather muddled.

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

You want to speak with someone, they may want to speak with you, but something has inhibited things. Perhaps both of you have been too caught up in detail. This is going to change, but first of all the initial discussion you have may ask more questions than it answers. Yet, with a little bit of goodwill on both sides, this can eventually be untangled.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

Mars has seen you more assertive around partnerships, and more likely to make the first move, where you have felt there have been benefits to joining up. However, don't be too quick to bond with anyone professionally this week. You may not be in full possession of all the details that you need. Examine everything carefully before proceeding.

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

The Sun roars into the most invigorating part of your scope, so in a day or so you're sure to be full of beans, right? Um, maybe not. Why? Because of the enervating influence of the Mars/Neptune match up which is capable of sucking the goodness out of just about any promising situation. For now, you can feel brighter, but spend the energy you do have, wisely.
