Summer Greetings!!!

In this issue of the Islands Marketplace I am pleased to present the winner of our Spring/Summer Contest - check it out on page three to see if it's you who has won the tickets to the Island Folk Festival in Duncan, BC. Call us at 537-2905 if this is your name drawn.

We at the Marketplace have recently made some positive choices about what we can do to be part of the solution to the global warming and the fossil fuels problem. Our story is on page 11.

Summer is here and it is so obvious when you visit any local swimholes on Saltspring or any other Gulf Island. Whether it is a beautiful seaside beach where the hot rocks heat the cool ocean water, or a swim hole on a river on Vancouver Island, you will find young and old seeking relief from the heat. Just a note of caution to all swimmers this season - be careful, swim with a friend or buddy and always watch little children near the water. And drivers - please slow down near the beach areas.

Andrew and I are thrilled to welcome into the world our newest little bundle of joy, Tiana Jane Poystila. So much gratitude and admiration go to the midwifery team in Ganges, Terry and Maggie and the wonderful nursing staff at The Lady Minto Hospital. Thank you for all your care and support during this wonderful time.

We also are very thankful for the great baby welcoming services of Marlie Kelsey and the Welcome Wagon. Marlie visited us and greeted our new babe with many helpful gifts and tokens which were offered through so many local businesses. It really is great to be part of such a rewarding and giving community. I encourage all newcomers and new parents to use the welcome wagon services in order to learn more about island businesses and what they have to offer. See their ad on page 6.

A really great story was emailed to me this week. It is a good story for those of us who are up to our eyeballs in work, work, work. Here is a story about a popular local who is enjoying a "holiday" on Salt Spring Island and is embracing all our island has to offer. It is a good reminder for us to take a break and smell the roses, or just get out and enjoy this paradise we live in. This story is worth keeping posted on our fridges to remind us now and then about living life to the fullest, facing our fears and trying new things in life, no matter what age we are. It is about laughing out loud and finding the goodness and happiness in our world around us. All I can say is "Way to go Brooke, just keep on, keeping on and keep that smile on your face no matter what part of the world you decide to visit!"

About The Islands Marketplace:

Place your free ad if you are buying or selling non commercial items, by calling our number, emailing us, uploading your ad on our website or dropping your written ad off at Apple Photo. You can also mail it to us via Canada Post. We will place your ad in your chosen category for 4 issues and will code the ad with a number which indicates the month and date that it will finish running. If you'd like to repeat your ad, please contact us. If you need your ad taken out early, please contact us. Ads may be edited for space or omitted for content. We accept no responsibility for errors or omissions. Our goal is to promote recycling and local small business with affordable advertising. We cover our printing, distribution and administration costs with paid advertising from the businesses who support this magazine and its community service. Stories, photos and comments are always welcome and greatly encouraged.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD, BABY!

Andrew and Sandi Poystila are very pleased to announce the birth of their daughter Tiana Jane Poystila on Sunday, July 6, 2008 at Lady Minto Hospital. Big sister Amanda is very proud & happy.

We extend our deepest gratitude to those who have helped to make this wonderful blessing possible - Terry, Maggie, Pauline, Nurses and staff at Lady Minto Hospital and our loving family and friends.

Ed Peekeekoot's "in the key of cree" nominated for 2008 Aboriginal People's Choice Music Awards

Vote for BC artist Ed Peekeekoot's in the key of cree CD in the first run-off of the 2008 Aboriginal People's Choice Music Awards, to be held in Winnipeg this November in conjunction with the Manito ahbee Festival. Ed is from the Ahtahkakoop Cree First Nation in Saskatchewan. He now lives in Crofton. Peekeekoot's CD is being considered for Best Country CD, Aboriginal Entertainer of the Year, Best Songwriter, Best Album Cover Design. Three tracks are being featured.

Wild Lilies to Wheat Fields tells about the time of transition for his people with the move onto reservations and learning a new way of providing for their families—farming. This changed their relationship with the land and with themselves, and people still know who they are. Jiggin' is an instrumental piece. "I come from a family of fiddlers" Ed says. "My grandmother was a little Metis woman who would do a jig around the kitchen while my uncles played. Prairie dances were a highlight of the summer." Dance of the Northern Lights is also an instrumental. Cree legends say that the northern lights are the Spirits of the Ancestors. If you whistle, they will circle around you. Try it, but be prepared. Like the northern lights, the music comes and goes and isn't over til it's over.

The first round of voting begins July 8-August 15, 2008. Registration is free to anyone wishing to cast a ballot at <http://www.aboriginalpeopleschoice.com/signup>

Some of Peekeekoot's live performances in BC this summer include the Islands Folk Festival at Providence Farm, Duncan, the Abbotsford Agrifair, the North American Indigenous Games in Duncan and the Armstrong Interior Provincial Exhibition and Rodeo. He is guest artist and performer at the July 19 opening reception of IceBear's Gallery showing "Man, Myth and Magic" at the CACVG Gallery in Victoria whose newest painting, titled "Peekeekoot", is inspired by both the man and the Ahtahkakoop culture. Some of Ed's cottonwood bark carvings will also be on display.

On July 20, in the Concerts Under the Stars series at The Tree House Cafe, Ed teams up again with his friend, Alan Moberg. Moberg is to be inducted into the BC Country Music Hall of Fame this August. He has just released a new, 16th CD, REMEMBER ME. And is releasing a single from that collection, the Rodney Crowell song Please Remember Me to commercial radio. Alan and Ed have together entertained crowds at the Tree House and at the Folk Club in the past year. Come join in the fun of these two outstanding performers.

"Getting Greener" at The Islands Marketplace

By Sandi Poystila

Many years ago Jim Henson's creation Kermit the Frog once said "it's not easy being green" and this could easily have been mistaken for a reference to environmentalism.

In today's world of a greener consciousness, we are realizing that everyone must participate in solving our environmental crisis and concerns. Every bit counts in doing what we can to eliminate pollution, greenhouse gases and wasteful burning of fossil fuels, in order to slow down the inevitable global warming.

We at the Islands Marketplace are also committed to doing our part in helping the environment. We take great pride in being able to offer free classified ads for those who wish to resell their good quality used items at no additional cost. We are pleased to find a solution in offering our magazine with little returns to the recycling depot. Since the magazine is printed on island - we only print what is needed. That is, when the copies run out in the stores, we print more, as needed, which reduces the amount of returns for every issue.

We encourage everyone to read our magazine, find the ads and phone numbers you need and then pass the magazine on to someone else. This helps spread the word of free classified advertising and recycling our used items. But we believe that we can do more to reduce our magazine's environmental footprint. As you may know, we offer our magazine in complete pdf format online, every issue, and many archive issues are also available. To receive a link to our online issue, just email us at: info@islandsmarketplace.com and you will be put on our Friday morning online subscriber's list. You will be able to read each issue, first thing Friday morning when it comes out, without having to drive into town to pick up a paper copy.

Also, due to the cost of travel, we have decided to stop driving off island to deliver our magazine to the stores in Chemainus, Crofton and Ladysmith. The rising costs of ferry and gas and the extra CO2 that we are burning in the process is just not worth it. We do want to continue our distribution on the other side, but will do so by Canada Post. This may take a day longer, but we feel it is worth the effort in doing what we can for the environment.

We do encourage all of our readers, on Vancouver Island, and the other Gulf Islands to please contact us to receive the issue by mail or to have the link to the pdf emailed to you. Visit our website to read each issue online at www.islandsmarketplace.com - Don't miss a good deal - check out our classifieds today and place your ad for free 24/7/365.

HOROSCOPE

For your daily stars, personal horoscopes & more visit www.patrickarundell.com

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

Venus has been gladdening your heart, but despite its silky healing touch, the Full Moon can cast a shadow over the need to balance the more sensitive and worldly areas of your world. Tensions are possible. Yet just as you're juggling with this, the Sun powers in and will give you a level of vibrancy that'll enable you to better cope with such demands.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

You and someone close may want similar things yet can be at cross-purposes. And however much each of you tries to assert yourself, this situation is only likely to improve when, rather than speaking, you both commit to listening more carefully to one another's view. Variety has seemed attractive of late, but now it's security. Try to count your blessings.

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

Mars breaks away from the restrictive clutches of Saturn and home plans can shape up. However, the financial element urges you to carefully think of the implications of any borrowing you consider. Yet if you do need to enthuse people with your ideas, the charm of Venus can be energised by the Sun's sheer drive. Your natural curiosity also comes to life.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

A tender moment is possible and part of this can come from your expectations of how you'd like people to be. Then in a romantic context, if a tie lacks the level of sensual intimacy you so desire, a frank discussion may help or convince you that pastures new are necessary. Yet big decisions should not be overly guided by more material considerations.

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

How do you save face and yet at the same time reassure people that you're genuine and sincere? A vulnerability can seem more obvious and this could sap your confidence. You may fear that people will feel less well regarded towards you. Frankly, less well-intentioned people, may. However, by the week's end all this will seem much in the past.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

If you're focusing on your social circle and friendships to the exclusion of a partner, a love tie may be about to go into freeze mode. Equally, if you feel a beau is spending too much time away, a period of soul-searching about what you really want can kick in. Solo? A friend may be interested but may be fearful of rejection. Look out for subtle signals.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

If you're chasing your ambitions to the exclusion of your own personal or emotional needs or those of loved ones, some kind of realignment may be needed. However, there's plenty of scope to change things for the better. This requires you to think beyond the demands of life's daily grind and focus on the long term. One friend can help you enormously.

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

Words and ideas have continued to play a starring role, but if you rush your thoughts this week, rather than being seen as erudite and quick-witted people can see you as being off-hand and glib. In formal situations be measured in what you say. If you're attending an interview, embellishing your qualifications or experience will create a lasting impression.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

You may have to juggle a desire to indulge in classier merchandise or earthier pursuits, just at a time when budgeting is key. But what doesn't necessarily cost money is imagination and whether it's finding novel ways to entertain the kids, to hunting down exciting new nature trails or interests, not everything worthwhile has an admission fee.

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

Relationship niggles can surface. And however stoic you are about the imperfections of human relating - or those at the heart of your life, you can find yourself tempted by dramatic moves, particularly if you sense that the commitment you're putting in, isn't being matched. Don't be too hasty. Seek counsel from those you know are objective.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

Putting a brave face on a health problem may seem noble, but investing in the wisdom of your doctor, dentist or local natural practitioner, can provide expert help and quickly resolve concerns. These too may linger about a colleague or whether a role is appropriate. But a more competitive you is about to emerge, and one that won't be lacking in winning charm!

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

You can still yearn for a more exciting mode of lifestyle or work, but you can be dreamy and this is a time to be utterly realistic about what's possible. Before you make any major decisions, imagine how these will pan out when things are less than perfect. If you do this, you could avoid going down the wrong track and wasting valuable time

StoryBrook: Facing Fears - Finding Freedom

Hi Folks! This morning in town I was chatting with one of my local "coffee buddies" and she wondered "Hey Brook, are people still asking you about what you are up to, now that your place is sold. Yup!! They sure are. Sometimes it's funny when a really fantastic rumor about me lands. Many still ask "How is the store going?". It hasn't been going for some time. I sold my house nine days after listing. I think I headed out to the disc golf course instead of downstairs to my shop, the day the deal was confirmed. I was in shock. I was imagining a end of the summer move if I was lucky, not now.

The few weeks leading up to my moving out, my answering machine had a hopeful jolly message saying that I was studying the map of the world. That's when I still had a phone!!

"What are you doing now that you are free?" has been the most frequently asked question. Isn't it odd how so many of us struggle so long and so hard to own our own home and yet when we sell it's viewed as "FREEDOM"? My idea of what that freedom looks like to me has changed many times in the past few weeks of it.

In the end I found what I really wanted was to have a "holiday" on Salt Spring. So I made it my first stop on my "I want to see the world". On July 1st, I spent the evening Kayaking out in Ganges harbor with a special friend, watched the fireworks from there and ate a great meal. A must do when visiting Salt Spring. And Horses. There are many opportunities to explore the equestrian culture on our fine little island. I signed up to get over my fear. Once a week I spend time in bliss with these fabulous animals. And no, I am no longer afraid of them. I also bought a 600 Honda Shadow motorcycle, that at times seems more thrilling than sex and way less complicated. There is nothing quite like a five in the morning ride along Saint Mary's Lake as the sun comes up, the air filled with the waking summer scent of honeysuckle and fir needles.

I am staying with a friend, her's being one of the most gorgeous places on earth. Solo the store cat, loves it too! He has lost weight. You all said he was "BIG"!! His attitude is just as bad as ever though.

Brooke enjoys her new motorbike.

While I dream of places to go, I continue to sort through all my "stuff" making many trips to Transitions, Lady Minto, the Lion's and the dump. I visit friends, dance, swim in the ocean naked, play disc golf, ball golf, go sailing, garden, help here and there, build things, eat lots of cherries, go to the farmer's market, and yes, live on Salt Spring. "I heard you are moving off island?" Not yet. "Are you going to start another store?" NO "Do you have a phone?" No. "How can I get a hold of you?" Try Roco most mornings. Look around and if you see someone laughing, happy, open to and looking for ANY kind of adventure it'll be me. So next time someone asks "What's your story, Brook" I'll say "Check it out in the next Marketplace.

My freedom is just that.
