Summer Greetings!!!

Yup, it's official. I heard it on the news today, so it must be true. I knew it would eventually happen soon enough, but when Mark Madryga said those dreaded four words, I just wasn't prepared. I actually cried out loud when I heard him say "summer is almost over." Oh no, I thought, such a short, cold summer and already we're headed into fall. Well we really only have two seasons here - summer and rain. It's not so bad, I guess, since I'm an aquarius, I actually like water, so I'll be okay, but I'm gonna do my best to make the most of every day we have left of summer 2008. And you should too.

One thing I recommend to do is see a really great show at the ArtSpring Theatre this weekend. "Shirley Valentine" is a comedy by Willy Russell. Directed by Ron Pollock, actress Sheila Jordan gives a fantastic performance as Shirley Bradshaw, aka Shirley Valentine. Her solo presence on stage commands all attention as she "talks to the wall" of her flat. Yet her description and impressions of people she knows and has met in her life makes you feel like they are there on stage also. As she reminisces of her life's stories you feel like you could know her, or be her, as she relays hopes, dreams, problems and situations that you can identify with in your own life. It is a truly thought-provoking and emotionally compelling play that makes you wish you were going to Greece with her. Shirley Valentine is playing this Friday and Saturday, Aug. 15 and 16 at ArtSpring Theatre on Saltspring Island. Don't miss it!

In response to the opinion piece in the local newspaper about John Quesnel and his metal recycling business on Rainbow Road, I would like to say that if the Islands Trust can grant rezoning to Stitches Quilt Shop, SS Coffee and other businesses then perhaps they should simply consider rezoning John's site as industrial. I don't believe that the noise is a problem. If his 3 young children can sleep through their afternoon naps, then surely it's not an issue. Like most islanders, we operate our businesses from home because home is where the heart is and we want to be close to our families. Don't attack him for trying to do good for his community and his family. We and John actually have a common goal here - we both are providing the community with free services which they otherwise would have to pay for. His metal recycling and our free classified ad service. Why pay for something when you don't have to? It's just common sense to use a free service. John and his family were some of the first friends we've met since moving here 5 years ago and he has always been helpful, kind, friendly and very welcoming. Let him to continue to provide the valuable service we need on this island. The island will be a cleaner, healthier, better place because of it. Way to go John, keep up the good work.

Enjoy this issue - see you in the sun - Sandi and Andrew Poystila

"A Work in Progress" by Seth Berkowitz is one of the many creative photographs to be enjoyed at the current exhibition at ArtSpring.

It is that time of year again - when we celebrate some of the best photography on Salt Spring Island.

PhotoSynthesis 2008 opens Tuesday, August 12 and runs until September 2, at ArtSpring. This year 25 island photographers will be exhibiting and selling scores and scores of photographs that will show their vision of the world, ranging from the pixel level up to stunningly expansive landscapes. This annual event has become a "must do" event of the art season on Salt Spring, and attracts people from Victoria, Vancouver, Seattle, and beyond.

A number of photographers who work nationally and internationally will be previewing new work at this year's PhotoSynthesis. This is an opportunity to see what these artists will be presenting to the rest of the world in the months to come.

Also, there will be selection of images on display taken from the recent Day in the Life annual special edition of the local newspaper. This award winning project photographically captures a 24 hour slice of life on the island.

I hope you will be able to join us in the this celebration of photography!

Opening reception was on Tuesday August 12 at ArtSpring. The exhibition runs until September 2, and will be open daily 10am to 5pm, and some evenings. The artists were in attendance for the opening reception.

See www.saltspringphotographers.ca for more information.

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

This week's Lunar Eclipse is a counterbalance to the magnificent Solar Eclipse of the start of the month. But its link to the murky Neptune asks you to seriously weigh up your future plans and ensure they're sustainable. Fortunately, your ruler Mars is going to give you a lot of pizzazz and no little determination, when it comes to driving things forwards.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

You may be more concerned with how people view you than you let on. Superficially you may shrug off any barbed comments but underneath this, their approval may be important. However, this is a time when others may be strongly critical of your worldly plans. The best way to counteract this is to make sure that you're really sharp eyed. Concentrate!

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

Everyone seems to have their own version of events but as far as legalities or a contract is concerned, it's what's down in black and white that counts. Don't pin any faith on vague promises - they probably won't come to much. And yet this can be a week when your personal charisma can reach a new high. In love, a turnaround in fortunes is possible.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

Despite the worldly vibes to the contrary, you've been doing your best to be positive about cash. But you may not be able to control someone else's attitude or the overall circumstances. With this in mind, proceed cautiously - especially around property, joint affairs or investments. This may see you frustrated, but try not to take it out on those at home.

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

If a relationship seems hazier than you'd like, this week can see you getting swept away in the uncertainties around it. Just vow to talk things through. And with Mars' help and providing you're not too forceful in asserting your needs and feelings over those of a partners' it's possible to slice through the gloom and get to the hard and fast facts.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

You can be very compassionate and your caring nature can be enhanced by the Eclipse. But are other people as thoughtful about your needs? If the scenario is all about giving - and getting little appreciation in return, it's time to redress the balance. Mars can be helpful and it'll give you a better idea of your worth - though not necessarily financially so.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

Your love life may seem a bit confusing, but as the week unfolds you will be able to reassert yourself. Perhaps you've been too deferential or maybe in the thrall of a mysterious stranger. Once you decide to get your hand back on the tiller of your life direction, you'll feel happier and more in control. Focus on what makes you unique Libra.

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

Your emotional life can seem uncertain. Perhaps you've been ignoring your needs, possibly because you've been focusing on major life goals. Then again, perhaps you've poured so much energy into these that you feel drained. Get some down time. You may need to look at the more spiritual dimension. Your world needn't be about getting on and status.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

If you need to float off into a brilliant film or piece of music, this week is ideal. If you need to keep your wits about you and figure if people are on the level, you'll need to throw off any mental lethargy you may have been feeling. Mars, fortunately, storms into a very upfront sector. You can be a frank person when you're minded, and now you will be!

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

Someone could try to sell you something and you may be tempted. Proceed with caution. There's a deceptive vibe so don't be the one that gets caught out. In fact, this is an ideal time for you to start to show a lot more of your natural authority and gravitas. This may require you to take the lead, but this can lead to an eventual increase in status or a promotion.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

If you feel confused about what to do about a key tie, it'd be of little surprise. Over the last seven years, even logical you has had your mind blurred by the hard to read influence of Neptune. But Mars can help you to work out a solution. And if you need to liberate yourself from a cloying commitment or just be more adventurous, this week you can.

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

Are you feeling ridden with guilt? Do you feel you should be doing more than you are? Or do you feel plagued by seemingly unfathomable complexes? If so, further investigation may be needed. You may feel you want to avoid the searching gaze of this, but an understanding and caring person can help you to regain your perspective - and it can be you!
