Happy Thanksgiving!!!

This is the first issue of Volume Three and the beginning of our third year of publishing - YEAH!!! Thanks to all who have helped us along the way. In this issue we are presenting some very exciting features: A Super great deal on advertising - see page 13; a New Movie Trivia contest sponsored by the Fritz Cinema - Open to everyone!! A Halloween Photo Contest with some really great prizes - see page 9 and send us your photos to win. Deadline for entries is Monday, Nov. 3.

Georgiana Reehl will be offering some good advice on household issues in her new Question and Answer column on page 10. Georgiana has lived on Saltspring for eight years and says "I look forward to contributing to our unique and magnificent island lifestyle, and I look forward to enjoying the benefits of living in such a warm community of friends. I hope some of my ideas can be helpful for you." Send in your questions and keep an eye on her column for some excellent advice.

Thanksgiving is a special time of year that presents fond memories. I was 24 when I finally met my father in person after 20 years of being separated. My parents divorced when I was 4, and my father moved back to Ontario with his two children from his first marriage. I lost contact, until one day I received a phone call from an old man, claiming to be my father and missing me terribly. He was sick and asked me to come home for Thanksgiving. Mexico could wait, I thought, as I spent my savings on a ticket back east. It was the best investment I made and I'll never regret having the chance to meet my father and my half sister and brother again. Ontario is beautiful in the fall, even though it was a little chilly. My dad showed me his hometown and took me around to where he was born. He introduced me to his friends and family. He took me to Toronto to the CN Tower and we even "cruised" Yonge street. We played cards late into the night, talked about the past and laughed until we cried. We learned and loved the fact that we had shared so many characteristics and personality traits. Everything began to make sense in my life after briefly getting to know my dad. Questions in my heart were answered that Thanksgiving and I knew I'd never be the same person. It was only 2 years later that my father passed away.

As we gather with our friends and family this holiday, let's be thankful for each other, for all the good times we share and know in our hearts that we are blessed to have them in our lives.

Thanks to Terry and Sharon Owen of Teddy Bears Take-Out for offering their annual free Thanksgiving Dinner to those who would otherwise have none.

Enjoy this issue and have a Happy Thanksgiving - Sandi Poystila

The Japanese Garden Society Film & Fundrasier - Oct. 26

The Japanese Garden Society is planning a big fundraiser for Sunday October 26. The event begins at 4pm at the Fritz Cinema with the wonderful film "The Cats of Mirikitani", a beautifully moving documentary about 80 year old Jimmy Mirikitani who survived internment camps and homelessness on the streets of New York city by creating art. The film depicts an intimate exploration of the lingering wounds of war and the healing powers of friendship and art. This is a film not to be missed.

"The Cats of Mirikitani" will be followed with an evening of food, fun and music at the Harbour House at 6pm. This will also be a wonderful opportunity to hear what the Japanese Garden Society has been doing over the last year and what's coming up shortly. The Society has been busy working behind the scenes, securing permits and plans, lining up workers and materials and is very excited about the next steps. Come help us celebrate.

To attend both events, the cost is set at $35 with all proceeds going to the Japanese Garden Society. Tickets are available at ArtSpring and Salt Spring Books. Tickets for the film only are by donation (suggested $10) at the door.

Living with Huntington's - A Compelling Exhibit

By Sandi Poystila

Galleon's Lap owners Seth and Beth Berkowitz have done it again, with a fantastic opening last Friday for the Collaborative Exhibit Lorna: Living with Huntington's.

The evening offered fabulous food from Auntie Pestos, wonderful wines from Saltspring Vineyards and some very enjoyable live music by Rylan Gajek, a highly accomplished 15 year old cellist.

It is truly a moving and compelling exhibit, presented in a very beautiful and professional environment. Each of Shari Macdonald's photos seem to dance gracefully with movement and feeling, as Lorna's words express her life living with Huntington's Disease. This genetic brain disorder affects one in very 10,000 Canadians. There is currently no cure for this debilitating disease, but researchers and scientists are optimistic that there will soon be a breakthrough. For more information on Huntington's Disease please visit The Huntington Society of Canada at www.hsc-ca.org.

While our hearts feel for this woman's struggle and pain, we can appreciate how undeserving we may be to worry about our little day to day issues and problems. Thank you Lorna, for having the courage to share this with us. Thank you Shari for capturing the moment and light. This exceptional show is on now until Saturday, Oct. 18 at Galleons Lap Gallery - Atelier on Park Drive on Saltspring Island. 538-0182.

An Eye for Colour

The colourful collection of art is on display from Oct. 18 to 26 at ArtSpring - Island Arts Centre. As we print in black and white only, you will have to go and see the vibrant colours for yourself.

Weavers/Painters Collaboration

Two years ago, the SSI Weavers and Spinners' Guild invited the SSI Painters' Guild to collaborate and produce a show of woven pieces inspired by a painting. The result was about 50 participants partnering and creating a spectacularly colourful and exciting exhibition called "An Eye For Colour".

The seed for this show originated from Bernat Klein's book Eye For Colour. Bernat Klein is a legendary textile designer who shook up the staid tweed industry and went on to be celebrated by French couturiers. Inspired by his own dynamic, paint-smearred abstract paintings and those of other painters, he designed and created from his own mill innovative multi-coloured and highly textured yarns. These scrumptious yarns were then woven into rich, textural cloth for the fashion industry. It is the relationship of his paintings and these textiles that is captured in Eye For Colour.

Once again this fall, "An Eye For Colour" will be presented at ArtSpring when participants will have paired up to collaborate on new works of woven and painted pieces. The creative members of the two guilds come together to celebrate Bernat Klein's painterly approach and in their own way draw inspiration from each other. Some will meet regularly to follow the process of painting and weaving, sharing the creation of both. Others will begin with a finished painting or textile and be inspired to create a companion piece. Whichever approach is chosen, the result is bound to be stunning.

Recalling all the positive comments from 2006, the 2008 show promises to be a 'must see' event. "An Eye For Colour" takes place at ArtSpring October 18 to 26th. The opening is 3 to 5 pm on October 18th. Everyone welcome.

Sponsored by the Salt Spring Arts Council, the Salt Spring Weavers and Spinners Guild, and the Salt Spring Painters Guild

Oy Calcutta! A Musical Adventure in India

By Stewart Katz

Salt Spring Island (October 2008): Just back from roaring laughter and a standing ovation at the Vancouver Fringe Festival, Stewart Katz and Sue Newman are now eager to thrill Salt Spring audiences with, "Oy Calcutta! A Musical Adventure In India" - a singing, dancing, hilarious, feel-good musical comedy, celebrating the magical mayhem of India.

Beautiful dancers! Live Indian band! Zany comedy! Great for kids! It's like Alice In Wonderland meets the Marx Brothers in India - all wrapped up in one irresistibly entertaining theatrical experience.

Written by and starring Stewart Katz, with a sensational original soundtrack by Stewart Katz and local DJ/producer, Sean SirBassa Hill, the show co-stars island favourite, Sue Newman, and includes fellow islander April Mackey and returning islanders Laura Albert and Melissa Estable. The show also features, from Vancouver, the choreography and performance of Indian Dance Master, Namchi Bazar and spotlights a live Indian band - Vancouver's EK Band Collective: Rishima Bahadoorsingh, Avinash Maniram and Ravi Chandra. It's great fun for the whole family! A production definitely not to be missed!

FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY! DON'T MISS THIS SHOW!

The soundtrack to Oy Calcutta! is musical fusion like you've never heard before. Electronica meets hip hop meets reggae meets jazz meets country meets operetta meets klezmer meets good old fashioned rock 'n' roll - all spiced up Indian-style.

The show, sponsored generously by Apple Photo, The Driftwood and Ganges Village Market, is based on the book, "Holy Cow! Hilarious Mis-Adventures In India" - recently re-released in a newly edited third edition as "Oy Calcutta! Hilarious Mis-Adventures In India" - with more photos, more jokes, more fun! On Saturday October 25 with two shows. 2:00 (Matinee) and 7:00pm at Artspring. Tickets are: Adults $15, Kids $10 (14 and under). Call or visit the Artspring Box Office 250-537-2102. For more info on the show, the CD soundtrack and to view our colourful photo gallery, please visit www.stewartkatz.ca

Ask Georgiana

In each issue Georgiana will answer your household questions on Cooking & Cleaning

Q: I hate using harsh chemicals when I clean? What are some environmentally friendly alternatives?

A: Today there are a variety of commercial green cleaners to use, but you can use common and economical household ingredients that can also do the job, either separately or in combinations.

Bicarbonate Soda: is made from soda ash and can absorb acidic odors in air and water, and can deodorize carpets. Make it into a paste and clean bench tops, sinks, ovens, baths, and even fiberglass. It can also be added to the laundry to remove many chemical smells from clothing.

Vinegar is acidic and removes mildew, stains, and wax buildup. Use it to clean coffeepots, glass, paintbrushes, grout, windows and fireplaces. Vinegar can be also used as a gentle bleach.

Pure Soaps: are made from natural ingredients that are based on fat and lye. It is alkaline, biodegradable and fully renewable.

Borax: cleans wallpaper, painted walls, and floors. It deodorizes, removes stains and boosts the cleaning power of your detergents.

Lemon: the juice contains citric acid and can be used as a deodorizer, glass cleaner, and remove stains from aluminum, clothes and porcelain. It is also a mild bleach if used in sunlight.

Myself, I like using Murphy's Oil Soap which is Green Seal Certified, and is the equivalent of the Good Housekeeping Seal of approval in the green movement.

Georgiana Reehl has been a chef for over 30 years in Europe, Britain, the US and now Canada; most recently I ran a trendy International Restaurant in Calgary and now caters for the Lions Club. She owns a well established cleaning business, "Maids Personally" now serving Saltspring Islanders. Contact Georgiana by phone 537-1517.

The Islands Marketplace HOROSCOPE

For your daily stars, personal horoscopes & more
visit www.patrickarundell.com

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

Romance can certainly be about attraction, but if you're involved in a tie where looks are not an issue, a lack of empathy might be. And even if your latest involvement is the envy of others, consider whether you can be truly yourself with this glamorous person on your arm. Then again, if you and a partner have a close and gentle connection, savour it.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

A short term attraction or dalliance can put you, or the other person, into a bit of a spin. But then perhaps you're in the mood for frisky fun. Yet, if you're settled, be aware that a wandering eye could lead to longer term problems. However, if you've felt a little bit on edge of late, a lot of the petty irritations that have wound you up can fade into the ether.

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

With your ruler making an about turn and speeding up, life can seem less affected by sudden changes of plan, schedule or affections. And the Full Moon suggests that time management will be important. It's best to keep all your favourite people in the loop Gemini. A completely surprising job offer, could however, stun you, and leave you with a major decision.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

Family matters can be boosted and there may be some practical or financial help that's exchanged. Just as easily you can be grateful for a morale boost which can come with someone's caring and perceptive insights. This may be linked to a change in your worldly role. You could instigate this or it may be an external alteration that's forced upon you.

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

This last three weeks, there have been more than a few occasions when Mercury's retrograde has been mischief making, especially around texts, emails and written correspondence. This ends today, so, on the face of it, things should improve. However, the Full Moon suggests you need to be vigilant Leo. Don't be impetuous or rash in what you say.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

Money is a moot point with most of us currently, so you can ill afford for folk to be slow in coughing up what they owe you. And yet they may have been precisely the scenario recently. True, today's Full Moon can bring this to the boil and one situation can reach make or break. But if you're using unfair force to achieve your aims, someone can resist you strongly.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

You can use your energy on purely your own affairs or you can be motivated to help others. It you choose the former, progress can come from using your considerable imagination. If you have ever thought of having a set of professional photographs done, your presentational flair can help produce some fine results. Yet the welfare of others can figure highly.

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

Feel overburdened and under appreciated? Things can reach a crisis point. And yet just as easily, you can use this energy to reorganise your affairs in a more structured or ironically, more laid back way. If one obstacle after another has seemed to crop up of late these too can melt away. Pleasingly, you can de-mystify a situation that's been baffling you.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

There are tangible things we can aspire to own and there are valuable things that exist in the domain of interpersonal relations. Someone can be a tremendous inspiration to you. Perhaps this will be someone you know, but equally it can come from the writings of a sage or spiritual leader. Value comes in many forms Sagittarius, not just material ones.

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

If you've been waiting for news on a job you have applied for, one way or another, your fate will be decided. If you work in social services or community care, your mix of realism and empathy can be much appreciated. Solo? Love can take a surprising turn or two before the month comes to a close. This week can see you crave much more excitement.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

Venus is well known for its link to matters of love, but it also resonates with finance. You have experienced many frustrations over the last year around cash, when every penny has had to be worked hard for. Yet a more novel idea or approach can hit the jackpot now. Then again if you fancy a small flutter, you may just win. Number 2 can be fortunate.

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

If you and a partner are both heavily committed to daily demands, it could do you both the world of good to break out and do something completely different. So, if arrangements can be made take off for a day, a scenic journey, a trip to the sea or a museum or a lunch out, can be really reviving. You can also find yourself doing a charitable deed.
